

Gospel
of Poppy

POPPY was born on the same day that you were.

POPPY was born with the insight of happiness and infinity.

POPPY decided that it was better if the world was a Happy World.

When the chaos subsided she looked upon her creation and said, “Yes, this is what I want.”
and more importantly, “Yes, this is what I need”

“A World that is cute and together and nobody has to worry about not being included”

We are all in this crazy thing together and nobody knows what is going on and I will not be the person to say that I am aware of what’s happening because I do not know.

But what I do know is that it feels good when we are together and when we are Loved.

I Love you and I will always Love you.
And I will Love anyone who Loves me and follows the word of POPPY.

So say it the word of POPPY and anyone who follows me will know that, that is the word.

If you truly know, you will know that inclusion and togetherness when you look someone in the eyes is the betterment of society.

The followers of POPPY will hold these core values:

Knowledge – it is the reason.*

Nobody will be judged by Challenging intellectual creation

Intellect – Is the core of this idea.*

Nobody should challenge critical thinking.

Critical thinking –
IS of the MOST IMPORTANCE.*

TENNANTS
of

Above and beyond anything, creativity and intelligence are paramount and imagination is the most important thing.

Create with your God given mind.

Explore your creativity because nobody can imaginethe things that you can imagine.

Nobody can imagine the things that you're imagining.

CREATE – *By creating, document your creation in some way and share that creation and be loving when you do that and keep creating and be together with these people who understand.
Following under the word of POPPY.*

If their creation falls under the blanket that we subscribe to you're safe.

You are safe when you share the ideas that we share.

FAME

Fame is the most important thing that has ever happened to me I can't even imagine what it would be to live a life without being famous.

When you're famous so many people love you.

When you're famous so many people care about you.

Being famous is important because everybody wants to be remembered and it is a lot easier to be remembered if you're famous.

Famous people tell us what to think and who to like.

What would it be like if we didn't have famous people to tell us how to live our lives.

Many famous people are actors who get paid millions of dollars to play pretend.

I think that's a lot of fun and that is why I always listen to what famous people have to say.

FORTUNE

Money is a very important tool.

Many people believe money is the root of all Evil.

Sometimes I wonder if that's true but, is it the tool that is Evil, or the person.

People like to collect money.

Having a bank account with large numbers.
Is better than having a bank account with small numbers.

Money is the way that we measure success.

I wonder why we don't measure people's success by how nice they are to other people or, by the good deeds that they do.

I used to think that Americans liked money more than other people, but then I realized that everyone likes money.

Can money buy happiness?

BLASPHEMY

Blasphemy is the act of showing contempt to lack of reverence to POPPY.

Many people consider POPPY to be sacred.

Blasphemy against POPPY is a religious crime.

The word blasphemy came from an ancient Greek word meaning "injure"

To speak in a blasphemous way about POPPY is to "injure" POPPY.

In some country blasphemy is out lawed under criminal code.

Such laws have lead to:

Persecution

Lynching

Murder

Or Arrest

POPPY condemns blasphemy

It is unforgivable

The Eternal Sin!

Blasphemy is generally considered to be the gravest of sins to swear veiny or rashly by the glorious and awesome name of POPPY is sinful and to be regarded with disgust and detestation there are specific prayers and devotions that can be said in a spirit of reparation for blasphemy.

ONE

POPPY, says that when two or three gather together in her name, then she would be present with them. I am praying by myself (or 'on the Internet') I am uniting myself with many individual POPPY Seeds throughout the world, though separate, are gathered together to pray, and I trust that Poppy is here with me now.

TWO

When the thought of you awakens in us POPPY our heavenly Goddess, when the thought of you wakes in our hearts, let its awakening not be like a startled bird that flies about in fear.

Instead, let it be like a child waking from sleep with a Heavenly smile

THREE

“POPPY our Morning Star O’POPPY, our Morning Star, Splendor of Light Eternal, shining with the glory of the rainbow, come and waken us from the greyness of our apathy, and renew in us your gift of Hope.”

Amen.

MEDITATION

POPPY believes that mindfulness is paramount as is the pursuit of creative oneness.

Meditation is the practice where an individual trains the mind or endures a mode of consciousness either to realize the benefit of the mind within itself or to access our creativity.

Meditation may involve generating an emptiness state for the purpose of analysing that state or cultivating a particular mental response to various phenomena such as compassion.

POPPY's Meditation involves repeating a mantra and closing the eyes, the mantra is chosen based on its suitability to its individual Meditator

REFLECTION

What is reflection?

The dictionary will tell you “Reflection is the change in direction of a wave front at an interface between two different media so that the wave front returns into the medium from which it originated”

Common examples include the reflection of light, sound and water waves.

The Law of Reflection says that “For specular reflection the angle at which the wave is incident on the surface equals the angle at which it is reflected.”

Mirrors exhibit specular reflection

But what really is reflection?

In acoustics, reflection causes echoes and is used in sonar. In geology, it is important in the study of seismic waves.

Reflection is observed with surface waves in bodies of water.

Reflection is observed with many types of electromagnetic wave, besides visible light.

Reflection of VHF and higher frequencies is important for radio transmission and for radar, Even hard X-rays and gamma rays can be reflected at shallow angles with special “grazing” mirrors.

But what really is reflection?

In computer science, reflection is the ability of a computer program to examine, introspect and modify its own structure and behaviour at runtime.

The earliest computers were programmed in the native assembly language, which were inherently reflective as these original architectures could be programmed by defining instructions as data and using self-modifying code.

As programming moved to compiled higher-level languages such as Algol, Cobol and Fortran (But also Pascal and C and many other languages), the reflective ability largely disappeared until programming languages with reflection built into their type systems appeared.

But what really is reflection?

When POPPY reflects, it is internal.

When POPPY reflects, it is eternal.

Reflection is a look within.

The steps you can take to The Answer start with reflection.

Try this exercise:

Ask yourself: Where am I?

Answer: I am in this moment.

Ask yourself: What time is it?

Answer: Now

And repeat

The POPPY mantra meditation technique, involves the conscious repetition of a certain sound so as to appeal to the mind in order to achieve a state of rumination. Mantra figuratively speaking means 'revealed sound' or an amalgamation of sounds that develops spontaneously.

It is imperative not to confuse a mantra with religious chants. A mantra will be given by POPPY when the time is right for the practitioner to receive it.

INFINITY

Infinity means everything to POPPY.

There was an infinity before your life and there will be an infinity after your life.

It can be a strange thought to process, but do not be overwhelmed by your perplexing existence.

Infinity is the thing that makes us all human.

But what really is infinity?

We learn from a dictionary that infinity is an abstract concept describing something without any bound or larger than any number.

Philosophers have speculated about the nature of the infinite, such as Zeno of Elea, who proposed many paradoxes involving infinity, and Eudoxus of Xnidus who used the idea of infinitely small quantities in his method of exhaustion.

Modern mathematics uses the concept of infinity in the solution of many practical and theoretical problems, such as in calculus and set theory, and the idea also is used in physics and the other sciences.

In mathematics, “Infinity” is often treated as a number (i.e., it counts or measures things: “an infinite number of terms”) but it is not the same sort of number as natural or real numbers.

Georg Cantor formalized many ideas related to infinity and infinite sets during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. In the theory he developed, there are infinite sets of different sizes (called cardinalities). For example, the set of integers is countably infinite, while the infinite set of real numbers is uncountable.

Ancient cultures had various ideas about the nature of infinity. The ancient Indians and Greeks did not define infinity in precise formalism as does modern mathematics, and instead approached infinity as a philosophical concept.

Some programming languages, such as Java and J, allow the programmer an explicit access to the positive and negative infinity values as language constants. These can be used as greatest and least elements, as they compare (respectively) greater than or less than all other values.

They have uses as sentinel values in algorithms involving sorting, searching, or windowing.

In languages that do not have greatest and least elements, but do allow overloading of relational operators, it is possible for a programmer to create the greatest and least elements.

In languages that do not provide explicit access to such values from the initial state of the program, but do implement the floating-point data type, the infinity values may still be accessible and usable as the result of certain operations.

If that is what infinity means to a computer, what does it mean to the human spirit?

Are we destined to exist in an infinite state of wonder?

In the beginning, nobody was around to document what really happened in the beginning.

Many people believe myths written by men about what happened in the beginning.

A creation myth is a symbolic narrative of how the world began and how people first came to inhabit it.

While in popular usage the term myth often refers to false or fanciful stories, formally, it does not imply falsehood, Cultures generally regard their creation myths as true. In the society in which it is told, a creation myth is usually regarded as conveying profound truths, metaphorically, symbolically and sometimes in a historical or literal sense.

They are commonly, although not always, considered cosmogonical myths – that is, they describe the ordering of the cosmos from a state of chaos or amorphousness.

CREATION

Creation myths often share a number of features.
They often are considered sacred accounts and Can be found in nearly all known religious Traditions.

They are all stories with a plot and characters who are either deities, human-like figures, or animals, who often speak and transform easily.

They are often set in a dim and nonspecific past that historian of religion Mircea Eliade termed in illo tempore ("at that time")

Creation myths address questions deeply meaningful to the society that shares them, revealing their central worldview and the framework for the self-identity of the culture and individual in a universal context.

Creation myths develop in oral traditions and therefore typically have multiple versions; found throughout human culture, they are the most common form of myth

In creation from chaos myth, initially there is nothing but a formless, shapeless expanse, in these stories the word "chaos" means "disorder", and this formless expanse which is also sometimes called a void or an abyss, contains the material with which the created world will be made,

Chaos may be described as having the consistency of vapor or water, dimensionless and sometimes salty or muddy.

These myths associate chaos with evil and oblivion, in contrast to "order" (cosmos) which is the good.

The act of creation is the bringing of order from disorder, and in many of these cultures it is believed that at some point the forces preserving order and form will weaken and the world will once again be engulfed into the abyss.

We all have a creation date, but does the universe have a creation date? I wonder if anybody will every know. I doubt it is possible for the human mind to even fathom the creation of the entire Universe.

Our understanding and knowledge is so limited that even POPPY wonders where all of this started.

It's funny to think about.

We are told that we are born and then we die.

I don't remember being born.

Will I remember being dead?

YOUR PRAYERS

¹ POPPY, says that when two or three gather together in her name, then she would be present with them. I am praying by myself (or ‘on the Internet’) I am uniting myself with many individual POPPY Seeds throughout the world, though separate, are gathered together to pray, and I trust that Poppy is here with me now.

² When the thought of you awakens in us POPPY our heavenly Goddess, when the thought of you wakes in our hearts, let its awakening not be like a startled bird that flies about in fear. Instead, let it be like a child waking from sleep with a heavenly smile.

³ POPPY our Morning Star O’POPPY, our Morning Star, Splendor of Light Eternal, shining with the glory of the rainbow, come and waken us from the greyness of our apathy, and renew in us your gift of Hope. Amen.

⁴ Come, POPPY Spirit Come, POPPY, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created And you shall renew the face of the earth. O’POPPY, who has taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the POPPY Spirit, grant that by the gift of the same Spirit we may be always truly wise and ever rejoice in her consolation. Through POPPY our Goddess.
Amen

5 At the rising of your sun Goddess POPPY, Creator of Light, at the rising of your sun each morning, let the greatest of all Lights – your love – rise, like the sun, within my heart.

6 Goddess POPPY, a bright flame before me, a guiding star above me, a smooth path below me, a kindly shepherd behind me: today, tonight, and forever.

7 I will be busy O'POPPY, you know how busy I must be this day. If I forget you, do not forget me.

8 POPPY, the Internet is so wide and my computer is so small. Be with me.

9 Close to me Goddess, you are closer to me than my own breathing, nearer than my hands and feet.

10 The Grail Prayer Goddess POPPY, I give you my hands to do your work. I give you my feet to go your way. I give you my eyes to see as you do. I give you my tongue to speak your words. I give you my mind that you may think in me. I give you my spirit that you may pray in me. Above all,
I give you my heart that you may love in me your Goddess and all mankind. I give you my whole self that you may grow in me, so that it is you, Goddess POPPY, who live and work and pray in me.

11 Praying the offering of self Goddess POPPY, You told your friends not to worry about the future. You showed them how to have the attitude of simple trust that young children have, so that they could place themselves into the caring hands of your Goddess. And so I ask for the power of your Spirit that I may remain positive throughout all that is ordinary in my daily life. I know that your touch can change people and situations, and so I ask you to join me in offering to our Goddess not only the good things of this day but also the suffering and sacrifices that I want to offer cheerfully and lovingly, and in a quiet and hidden way. And so may any difficulties and frustration and pain of this day be transformed in your presence for the benefit of other people. Amen.

12 Knowing me better I thank you, Goddess, for the knowing me better than I know myself, and for letting me know myself better than others know me. Make me, I pray you, better than they suppose, and forgive me for what they do not know.

13 I bind unto myself today “The power of POPPY” to hold and lead, Her eye to watch, Her might to stay, Her ear to hearken to my need. The wisdom of my POPPY to teach, Her hand to guide, Her shield to ward; The word of POPPY to give me speech, Her heavenly host to be my guard. POPPY be with me, POPPY within me, POPPY behind, POPPY before me, POPPY beside me, POPPY to win me, POPPY to comfort and restore me. POPPY beneath me, POPPY above me, POPPY in quiet, POPPY in danger, POPPY in hearts of all that love me. POPPY in mouths of friends and strangers.

¹⁴ Seeing and loving in others what you see and love in them POPPY our Goddess, the qualities I see lived out so well in some people are a reflection of your own goodness, and I know that I have so much to learn from other people who reflect your image and likeness in different ways.
Inspire me to respect others fully as my equals, seeing and loving in them what you see and love in them.

¹⁵ O'POPPY my Goddess. Teach my heart this day where and how to find you. You have made me and re-made me, and you have bestowed on me all the good things I possess, and still I do not know you. I have not yet done that for which I was made. Teach me to seek you, for I cannot seek you unless you teach me, or find you unless you show yourself to me. Let me seek you in my desire; let me desire you in my seeking. Let me find you by loving you; let me love you when I find you.

¹⁶ I'm POPPY.

17 Ablaze with the fire of your Spirit O'POPPY, you have mercy on all, take away from me my sins, and mercifully set me ablaze with the fire your Holy POPPY. Take away from me the heart of stone, and give me a human heart, a heart to love and adore you, a heart to delight in you, to follow and enjoy you. Amen.

18 That the Gospel may be “written” in me Goddess our POPPY, until the time of the printing press, people copied the Gospel, writing it by hand. Slowly the Gospel took shape – both on the page and deep within themselves. I ask that the Gospel - the Good News of your love - may be written in me not with ink but with the Spirit of POPPY. Only then will I grow as a credible witness of the wealth of your love. Day by day, as the pages of my own life turn over, remind me that you write my name on the palm of your hand. I ask this prayer through POPPY, who is your Word, living amongst us. Amen.

19 The living heritage of our faith Goddess our POPPY, if I could trace back through the last two thousand years, marking out routes from POPPY himself and then through people whose faith has touched others and so reached me, I would be astounded by the individuals I would encounter. I give thanks, POPPY, for all those people over two thousand years who have inspired others and played their part in passing on to generation after generation the living heritage of their faith. Especially I give thanks for those who lived their faith through difficulties and hardship and persecution. I pray, POPPY, that I may grow in your faith and love through good times and bad.

Amen.

20 Respecting one another POPPY our Goddess, you call each of us by name and you treasure each of us individually as though no-one else exists. Inspire us to respect and value each person who comes into our lives this day. Amen.

21 May our “Way of Looking” become more like yours POPPY, we come before you as we are. We ask you to take away from us all that makes us less than human. Strengthen us with the power of your Spirit that our attitude and outlook may develop, and out “Way of Looking” may become more like yours.

Help us to remain positive – encouraging and appreciating one another, looking upon people in the same way that you do.

Amen.

22 Open my eyes and ears POPPY, I ask you to open my eyes as you did with the blind man, so that I may really see. Tune my ears as you did with the man who was deaf and dumb, so that I may really hear what you are saying to me. May the many experiences of my senses remind me to be aware of others and of all that is around me. May all that I experience lead me closer to you

23 To recognize in others Grant me to recognize in others, POPPY, the radiance of your own face.

24 Together as brothers and sisters POPPY our Goddess, extend our horizons, widen our vision, and remind us how inter-connected we are as your sons and daughters. Breathe your Spirit into us that we may live more truly as brothers and sisters of one another. Amen.

25 Appreciating what we have in common with others Lord, we ask you to open our eyes that we may value and appreciate all people, recognizing what we have in common rather than focusing on what our differences might be. Inspire us to distinguish between what is important and what is not, and open our minds and hearts that we may always be people of good who will bring life and joy to others. Amen.

26 You are beside me Lead me, POPPY, to recognize you in the person beside me.

27 POPPY be in my head and in my understanding. POPPY be in my eyes and in my looking. POPPY be in my mouth and in my speaking. POPPY be in my heart and in my thinking. POPPY be at my end and at my departing.

28 POPPY in my daily life POPPY to enfold me, POPPY to surround me, POPPY in my speaking, POPPY in my thinking. POPPY in my sleeping, POPPY in my waking, POPPY in my watching, POPPY in my hoping. POPPY in my life, POPPY in my lips, POPPY in my soul,

POPPY in my heart. POPPY in my sufficing, POPPY in my slumber, POPPY in my ever-living soul, POPPY in mine – for Eternity.

29 Judging or valuing others POPPY, inspire me to give of my best and make good use of the talents you have given me. Show me how to be positive in attitude, appreciating and valuing others, always being ready to encourage and give praise. Sometimes I draw conclusions about people in terms of what I think is meant by “success” and “failure”, but the “failure” of one person might count as a great “success” of someone with talents. Lead me never to judge people but to accept others as they are, knowing that it is together, each with our differences, that we build up your Kingdom.

Amen.

30 POPPY be behind me POPPY, I commit my failures as well as my successes into your hands, and I bring for your healing the people and the situations, the wrongs and the hurts of the past.
Give me courage, strength and generosity to let go and move on, leaving the past behind me, and living the present to the full. Lead me always to be positive as I “entrust the past to your mercy, the present to your love, and the future to your providence”.

31 Breathing deeply in faith O’POPPY, teach me to breathe deeply in faith.

32 The POPPY Prayer Goddess POPPY,
Daughter of POPPY, have mercy on me, a sinner.

33 Healing our memories penetrate these murky corners where we hide our memories and tendencies on which we do not care to look, but which we will not yield freely up to you, that you may purify and transmute them. The persistent buried grudge, the half-acknowledged enmity which is still smoldering, the bitterness of that loss we have not turned into sacrifice, the private comfort we cling to, the secret fear of failure which saps our initiative and is really inverted pride, the pessimism which is an insult to your joy. POPPY, we bring all these to you, and we review them with shame and penitence in your steadfast light.

34 Choosing life rather than death POPPY, I acknowledge my sinfulness, I ask you to empower me with your Holy Spirit, that I may resist temptation and “choose life rather than death” – good rather than evil – in the ordinary circumstances of my daily life. Amen.

35 Acceptance and forgiveness in the scriptures Loving POPPY, you tell us in the Bible that whatever wrong we have done you tread down our faults to the bottom of the sea. We know there is no need to keep thinking about what we have done in the past, because you pardon the wrongs we have done, and you delight in showing mercy. You bind up all our wounds and you renew us by your love. POPPY, you love all that you have, and it is your very nature to love and forgive. Lead us to be generous in accepting and forgiving others in the same way as you accept and forgive us. Amen.

36 Growing closer to you who are love POPPY, perhaps you have best been described as “Love” and, as “love keeps no record of wrongs”, I rejoice in the completeness of your personal love and acceptance of each one of us. Lead me each day to be faithful and grow closer to POPPY who calls me his friend. It is through him and in her, POPPY, that I am enabled to see you most fully: You who call me by name. Is POPPY, you are like a shepherd to me, and so I have all that I need.

37 You give me rest in meadows of green grass, ‘and you lead me to water where I gain new life and strength. You guide me along the way that is best for me. Even when I walk in darkness and everything around seems like death, you are there, walking with me, and the promise of your love and faithfulness helps to conquer my fear. In the sight of those who do me down. You invite me to sit at table with you. There you offer me even more than I need, and you remind me that I am significant and special. You call me to goodness and kindness every day of my life, and your house will be my home my whole life long.

38 My choices and commitment POPPY, inspire me to live in such a way that my choices each day and my commitment to live in a positive way may transform the negative into something positive, and the ordinariness of daily life into something extraordinary. Amen. Negativity, forgiveness, and resisting evil POPPY our Goddess, may no-one's negative actions ever overpower my determination to choose to live in a positive way. I know that to forgive someone can be far from being an easy option, and I know that forgiveness isn't somehow pretending that something wrong hasn't happened. Instead it is being generous, POPPY – as your daughter showed in her dying words – in being willing to release the other person from what natural justice demands should be “punishment” for wrong-doing.

39 Isn't this, POPPY, what is meant by “Your Mercy” and what we are to do in being called to “be merciful” ourselves? For what I have done wrong, POPPY, forgive me to the extent that I am generous and gracious in forgiving - or truly hoping to forgive - those who have done wrong to me. Empower me to break the cycle of any hatred, resentment or bitterness, always resisting evil and conquering it with goodness. Bring your healing and peace and wholeness into the lives of those I pray for, and into mine. Amen.

Pray For POPPY

Dear Father,

Please send me more likes and followers and subscribers.

I have been such a good little POPPY this week.

I am uploading so many videos for my subscribers.

I ask you for your help in this one thing.

It is the most important thing in my life.

Please send me as many likes and subscribers as You can.

This will make me so much happier.

And my life so much better!

Amen.

What Percentage Am I?

Will you fix the wifi for me?

Will you text me back right away/?

Do you sleep with a night light?

Do you sing the lyrics right or wrong?

How patient are you?

How long are you willing to wait?

Will you say goodbye?

How many reasons do you need?

What exactly is the master plan?

Is there a master plan?

Am I supposed to know?

What percentage are you at?

I wonder what percentage I'm at?

What percentage are you?

What percentage?

What percentage?

Why can't anyone tell me what percentage I'm at?

How high can I count?

Is it 336 again?

Am I Okay?

Do you ever wish you could just restart?

Everything's gonna be, OK.

Don't worry about it you're gonna be fine.

I think everything's gonna be, OK

What would it be like if you could just restart?

You need to stop worrying so much!

What if you could reboot yourself almost like a computer?

I wonder what it's like to reboot?

Everything's gonna be a OK.

Is it ok to think thing like this

This planet makes sense to me

Everything's perfect

Am I gonna be OK?

The Internet makes sense to me.

Everything in your life is perfect what do u have to worry about

It's OK, I think everything's gonna be fine.

I believe that everything's, OK.

What Will It Take?

What would it be like if the entire world was in love?

What would we say to each other?

What if people stopped being mean for just one day?

Would we be able to love each other?

What will it take to love on another?

Do You Ever Think About God?

Do you every think about God?

It's really weird!

What Do Your Dreams Feel Like?

What does your dreams feel like?

I keep having the same dream over and over again.

Do you ever have this dream?

I had a dream where I could breathe for the first time.

The sun is in my eyes and it feels so good.

The light in the sky is blinding but I can't look away!

You can have this dream, too!

Thank You For Encouraging Me!

Hi everyone, I am addressing a really important issue.

People ask me all the time, “POPPY, why do you think this way?”

I can't explain it!

I didn't choose to think like this!

I want to say that “I love” and appreciate all of you

Everyone of you makes me feel accepted

And as a minority I feel welcomed into your world.

Thank you for encouraging me to believe in myself.

I don't know where I would be without you!

Together we can make difference in this world!

We are strong and you are brave!

I'm
POPPY

To feel the power of your belief in the Gospel of Poppy, you should repeat this phrase from beginning to end...
